

Date 2017	Event Title and Profile.	AIM	Learning Objectives After attending this event learners should have an improved understanding of:
13 Sept	Breaking down the Barriers to Housing Delivery Brought to you in association with Barton Willmore this one-day conference will explore the barriers to housing development in the wake of the Farmer report and what progress has been made following the recommendations. The conference will also consider the differences location can have to these barriers and the latest impacts on local plan progress.	Develop a broader understanding of the issues associated with housing by exploring some of the barriers.	Analyse the issues associated with the barriers to housing development in the wake of the Farmers Report; Review and understand the recommendations of the Farmer report; Appraise the differences location can have on delivering housing and the latest on local plan progress.