

Planning and Infrastructure

The Queens College, Oxford, 14th September 2017

.....

Programme

9.30am Registration and refreshments

Session one: Setting the scene

10.00am Welcome and introduction

Sue Percy, CEO, Chartered Institute of Highways & Transportation and Immediate Past-Chair of RTPI South East

10.05am Planning law update

Hugh Richards, Barrister, No 5 Chambers

10.35am NIC and the National Infrastructure Assessment

Adam Cooper, Policy and Engagement Director, NIC

10.55am Questions and discussion

11.10am Refreshment break

Session two: Delivering infrastructure in the South East

11.30am A27 - South Coast: Delivering growth

Peter Phillips, Highways England

11.55am Kent and Medway Growth and Infrastructure Framework

Katie Stewart, Director of Environment, Planning and Enforcement

12.20pm Delivering infrastructure for health

Janice Morphet, Visiting Professor, UCL

12.50pm Lunch

A buffet lunch will be served in the main Queens College dining room.

With thanks to our sponsors:

Session three: Benefits management and considerations

- 1.40pm Benefits management in infrastructure projects
James Hawthorne, Associate (Business Advisory), Arcadis LLP
- 2.05pm Compulsory purchase orders and rural planning
Edward Briggs, Partner (Rural), Bidwells
- 2.25pm Ecological considerations of HS2
Nick Sanderson and Oliver Ramm, Directors, RammSanderson Ecology Ltd
- 2.45pm Questions and discussion
- 3.00pm Refreshment break

Session four: A wider picture

- 3.20pm Public perceptions of infrastructure
Linda Taylor, Managing Director, Copper Communications
- 3.45pm National infrastructure and local plans
Anna Rose, Head of PAS
- 4.15pm Questions and discussion
- 4.25pm – 4.30pm Chair's remarks, thanks and close

With thanks to our sponsors:

Presentation slides will be circulated by email following the event.

Email enquiries to: southeast@rtpi.org.uk